b). Take a train from Warsaw to Krakow

You can take bus No.175 from terminal II to Central (Centralna) train station. The travel time is around 20 minutes (if there's no traffic; when the traffic is huge, it may be up to 1 hour). The cost of the ticket is 2.40 PLN for an adult, to be on the safe side you may also buy an additional ticket for the luggage (2.40 PLN, same as for you) - theoretically, you don't need it anymore, but there are still ticket inspectors who will have a huge problem if you travel with a big bag without the additional ticket.

Taxi fee (No tips) from airport to the train station is normally less than 40PLN.

Click link: <http://rozkład.pkp.pl/bin/query.exe/en>, copy Warszawa Centralna as departure station, and input Zakopane as destination to get the train.

On most trains you need to book a seat in advance. You cannot book without buying a ticket at the same time.

If you come to Zakopane from Warsaw an overnight sleeper train is also a possibility.

Warsaw - Zakopane sleeper fare (one way) is about:

1st	class	(1 person in a compartment)	-	150PLN
2d	class	(2 persons in a compartment)	-	90PLN
3d	class	(3 persons in a compartment)	-	55PLN

Not many people use sleepers so you are likely to be alone even if you buy 3d class.
